

California Children's Outdoor Bill of Rights

Mission: To encourage California's children to participate in outdoor recreational activities and discover their heritage.

Objective: That every child in California, by the completion of their 14th year, has the opportunity to participate in each of the activities listed within the California Children's Outdoor Bill of Rights.

The California Children's Outdoor Bill of Rights provides that every child should have the right to:

- Play in a safe place
- Explore nature
- Learn to swim
- Go fishing
- Follow a trail
- Camp under the stars
- Ride a bike
- Go boating
- Connect with the past
- Plant a seed

Members of the Roundtable include recreation, parks and tourism leaders from local, state and federal agencies, private and non-profit organizations, educational institutions and the public.

Web Address: www.calroundtable.org